JESUS Film Teams

SOULS WON TO DATE: 1,007,298

Recently, in one of the villages we visited, a man known by everyone as the town drunk came and watched the JESUS film. He prayed to receive Christ and was instantly delivered from his addictions. The next day he actively began sharing his faith and is encouraging others to come to Christ. Standing in the middle of a crowd of his peers, Thomas asked his village, "Who here does not know me? Who here doesn't know how bad I was? When these people came and showed the JESUS film in our language, I knew I had to change. I prayed and now I am free."

After hearing Thomas's testimony the crowd began to cheer and celebrate. After witnessing one of their own villagers so radically changed by the gospel, smiles and sighs of relief and shock were evident amongst the people. The gospel really does have the power to change hearts and lives. These are the kind of stories we encounter in villages everyday and one of the many reasons that Here's Life finds such fertile ground for your investment. Thank you for your partnership in the gospel.

We are seeing half of those viewing the JESUS Film pray to receive Christ.
